Adam Ambarzumjan

Vita [EN] long version

„Adam Ambarzumjan is without doubt a master of his instrument.“
- Süddeutsche Zeitung

Adam Ambarzumjan is an internationally award-winning clarinetist and since the beginning of 2020 principal clarinetist of the Württemberg Philharmonic Orchestra. In 2023 he won a special prize as a chamber music partner at the German Music Competition and was accepted as a scholarship holder in the German Music Competition concert promotion for the 2024/25 concert season. As a prize winner at international competitions in Germany, Italy, Austria and Switzerland, he has made several guest appearances as a soloist with the clarinet concertos by Mozart, Weber and Copland. He completed his bachelor's degree with Prof. Norbert Kaiser in Stuttgart with honor. He attended master classes with professors Hans Klaus, Martin Spangenberg, Johannes Peitz, Thorsten Johanns and Thomas Lindhorst. Adam Ambarzumjan played as a temp in the Mannheim National Theater, in the Stuttgart State Orchestra, a. o. and as a member of the youth orchestra of the Bavarian State Orchestra. He was awarded the Deutschlandstipendium and scholarships from the Oscar and Vera Ritter Foundation, the Bavarian Music Council’s scholarship for gifted students, the New Liszt Foundation, the Yehudi Menuhin Foundation in Stuttgart and others.